Mary Magdalene 22nd July Information from 'Biography online'

Mary Magdalene is mentioned four times in the Gospels as a close follower of Jesus Christ. She was with Jesus during the crucifixion and the first person to see Jesus after the resurrection. Due to a sermon by Pope Gregory the Great in the sixth century, she developed a reputation for being a prostitute and repentant sinner. However, there is no evidence she was, and it appears there was confusion with other Marys mentioned in the Bible. In the Bahá'í religion and Eastern Orthodox tradition, she is considered a great saint.

Information about the life of Mary Magdalene come from Canonical gospels included in the New Testament, plus other texts which were not included when the New Testament was finalised.

In Luke 8:1-3, there is a passage where Mary Magdalene had seven demons cast out by Jesus. 'The Twelve were with him, and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out—and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.' It is possible that this passage refers to another Mary with (Magdalene) added at a later date. Scholars also suggest that the casting out of demons may have been illness or negative emotions.

Mary Magdalene is mentioned by other gospel writers for being present at the crucifixion, including staying after male disciples had left the scene. In John 20:16 and Mark 16:9 Mary Magdalene is also mentioned as the first witness to the resurrection of Jesus. The gospels of Mark and Luke report that the other male disciples did not believe what Mary reported until they saw with their own eyes.

In other non-biblical texts, the character of Mary Magdalene is further developed, suggesting she was one of the most advanced disciples and had visionary power herself. They suggest that the closeness of Mary Magdalene created tensions with other disciples, who found it difficult for a woman to have more influence and prestige than themselves. The early church, which came to be dominated by men, tended to downplay the role of women. Therefore, it is significant that even in the canonical gospels, Mary Magdalene appears very devoted and close to Jesus. The fact she was the first witness to his resurrection is also significant because, at the time, women generally were not considered reliable as witnesses.

The Eastern Orthodox church has always seen Mary Magdalene as a virtuous woman, and a different person to the repentant Mary who anoints Jesus in the gospel of Luke. In the Catholic tradition, Mary Magdalene has been more associated with a repentant sinner. This view has often been romanticised in art, and was given credence in a speech by Pope Gregory the Great in the sixth century. However, the Catholic church later modified their view. In 2006, Pope Benedict XVI spoke of Mary Magdalene as “a disciple of the Lord who plays a lead role in the Gospels.”

God, of thy goodness, give me Thyself;
for Thou art enough for me,

that can be full honour to Thee.
And if I ask anything that is less,
ever Shall I be in want,
for only in Thee have I all.”

All Saints Walking Group.

Seven people and two Labrador dogs joined the walk on Saturday 9th June.

We walked to the Coombe rise car park and then up towards Cissbury taking the track on the south side by the old rifle range.

Then onto the Ring and down to the Cissbury car park and Nepcote Green before stopping for refreshments in Findon.

We met some New Forest ponies on Cissbury who despite grazing on the path were not perturbed by walkers or dogs.

The dogs enjoyed a cooling plunge in the Nepcote Green pond emerging a bit smelly!

The next walk will be on Wednesday the 1st August 2018 during the ‘Holiday at Home’ week, starting at 9.30 am from All Saints Church.

It will be roughly a parish boundary walk taking in St. Peter’s, finishing back at All Saints Church where it just happens to be coffee and cake morning!

I hope to see you then and please wear suitable footwear and clothing. Our walks are open to all so feel free to bring or tell friends and family. If you have any queries please ring me on 01903 872381.

Dear Parent/Guardian

I am writing to you today about 1st Findon Rainbows - they need your help! Sadly, Emma will be stepping down after many years with 1st Findon Rainbows. We are looking for a volunteer to aid Claire, in the running of the unit.

You don't need to be an existing member of Girlguiding or hold experience in working with children - you only need to be a minimum age of 18 years old.

So, if you, a relative or a friend would be interested in:
Doing something for your local community
Gaining opportunities to build skills for life
Being an inspiration for girls

Then get in touch about this fantastic opportunity.

Emma & Claire have both explained to me how much this group means to Findon. It would be such a shame to see this unit close due to a lack of adult leaders.

If you would like to discuss this opportunity further or have any questions about the role, please contact me or Emma on the information below. Many thanks for your time and hope to hear from you soon.

STOOLBALL TOURNAMENT

On Sunday 3rd June a team representing All Saints participated in a stoolball tournament on Nepcote Green.

The team arrived to find two pitches marked out and the draw for who they would play completed.

The proceedings got underway at 11:30am, with the first 4 teams taking to their respected pitches.

The All Saints team was one of these teams. After losing the coin toss All Saints were asked to field.

After a quick team talk from the captain. The team took to the field. The game was to consist of 5 overs of 8 balls for each side, with scoring the same as in cricket. The All Saints fielded valiantly but conceded over 50 runs. Then came their turn to bat. After a slightly shaky start a mid-order revival saw them fall short of their required target.

There was quite some time between the end of the first game and the start of second, but I gave the team chance to chat and look at the other two teams they had to play against.

Then the time came for the second match. A slight change in personal was made, and once again All Saints fielded first. Again, All Saints fought valiantly in both the field and at batting, but somehow come away with another defeat. This one higher than the first.

Then came that final game of the day, and all eyes were on All Saints and a team representing the Findon Sheep Fair. If the sheep fair team won, they could claim second place. As with the previous two games All Saints fielded first and thought they had kept the sheep fair team to a reasonable score. After their innings was completed All Saints had come up just a little short of the target score.

Despite not winning a game, all who took part enjoyed the afternoon. Congratulations to the team from St John the Baptist Youth Group, who managed to remain undefeated, and took home the trophy.

We would like to thank Graham Langford for organising the tournament and inviting All Saints to put a team in. I would also like to thank those who came along and took part, and those who came along and supported.

Jonathan Hawkins (Stoolball Captain)

All Saints Halls For Hire

We have two rooms available to rent within our Church building. A large hall or a smaller hall which we call The Donald Rose Room, this one is carpeted.

We have recently refurbished our larger hall and this now has portable staging and lightweight, foldable chairs

There is a well-equipped kitchen that includes a large cooker with 2 ovens and use of a fridge. The kitchen can be used for either hall as it has 2 hatches. There are large and small tables plus plenty of chairs available to use.

Off the Donald Rose there is a small-enclosed garden.

These halls can be hired at very reasonable rates; during the week the halls can be hired from as little as £11.00 an hour for the Donald Rose Room and the larger hall from £13.50 an hour.

At Weekends the halls can be hired together for the whole morning or afternoon or evening session for very reasonable rates starting from £75.00, please call or email for more information.

If you are interested in hiring either of these for Children's Parties, Wedding or Anniversary Parties, Fundraising Events or Meetings.

Please contact Heather Symonds on 01903 873214, or email: cjsymonds@ntlworld.com

Hiring St Peter's Church in High Salvington

We have a lovely space at St Peter's which is firstly our church but also a community hall which we welcome others to hire for a reasonable fee to cover the running costs e.g. for electricity, cleaning and heating. We do have a few restrictions on this hire because of the dual nature of the building so not all requests can be accommodated.

There is a kitchen and a beautiful, secluded garden. The building is accessible to wheelchair users via a portable ramp and the garden can be accessed from a side gate.

The building is most suitable for meetings, adult education, musical recitals, art exhibitions, coffee mornings and fundraising events.

If you would like more information or have an event in mind, please call:

WHCP Notice for July

"Many thanks for the deodorants kindly donated last month. These do give a sense of pride and well-being as you can imagine.

WCHP has recently started to provide a graduated stepping down of support rather than the "drop" that can sometimes be felt when settling into new accommodation. This will help to prevent bottle necks in homeless services as a whole and to keep accommodation fluid for clients. By ensuring an effective strategy WCHP can avoid residents remaining in Move On Housing and allowing for clients of higher support hostels to filter through. The ultimate outcome of this is that hostels will be able to accommodate more rough sleepers and more clients will be housed in accommodation appropriate to their needs."

Thanks,

Noreen

South Downs Way walk

To mark our significant birthdays (we have both celebrated our half centuries this year), my friend decided that we needed to 'do' something! That something turned out to be walking the South Down's

Way – in its entirety!

So to this end, Cara and I (Maggie) are walking from Winchester to Eastbourne through the summer holidays. Not all in one go I might add but nearly!

Although I am not doing it as a sponsored event, if you would like to donate, I will be giving any money raised to St Barnabas and Chestnut tree house hospices.

If you would like to join us on part of our walk, you would be most welcome and if you can spare some time in the morning or evening to take us to our starting point or pick us up from our finishing point, please let me know and your thoughtfulness and kindness would be most appreciated (and would save Cara's husband doing it all!!)

So, this is our itinerary.

Sunday 12th August

Winchester to Weatherdown a stroll of a mere 19 and a half miles.

We stop overnight at a hostel at Weatherdown and then ...

Monday 13th August

Weatherdown to Cocking 15 and a bit miles today.

Tuesday 14th august

Cocking to Washington only 18 and a half miles to finish the first 3 day stint.

Friday 24th August

Washington to Devils Dyke 11 miles for the first of our 3 day walks

Saturday 25th August

Devils Dyke to Southease nearly 18 miles

Sunday 26th August

Southease to Eastbourne 19 and a half miles to finish

Thursday 2nd August

Marylebone Ladies Summer Visit

In just a few weeks' time a group of ladies from the Marylebone day centre will be enjoying the day with us, a time which they look forward to so very much.

Lunch will be served around 1pm at All Saints with entertainment which ALL the ladies from the church are welcome to attend. This year we are hoping to have the company of a special guest, Valentina Ines La Mela, the Centre Team Leader for the Marylebone Project.

To make this a really special occasion we need plenty of help and support to make this day successful – please come along for a few hours and enjoy the friendship!

If you are able to help with the setting up, transport, food preparation or cleaning up etc please contact David Milner at church or on 01903 872513.

Lists will be at the back of the church nearer the time.

And I suppose we ought to know there are other letters which didn't make it into the NT. It would be good if they gave us one or two of them to read in our 3 year cycle – there should be room now for the reserve team to play.

And then there's Revelation which starts off with a brief comment about the state of play in the 7 churches of Asia Minor and the swamps us in a vision of the last days. Better to enjoy it than try to untangle it bit

“.....hear them read” Section 2

Somebody asked who chooses the bits of Bible we read on Sundays and why.

Every Sunday the notice sheet has the bible readings on the inside and we are offered at least 4 bits each time nowadays in a 3 year cycle. Last month I was thinking about the Gospel. Now I turn to the other NT readings, which used to be called the Epistle because mostly we read from Paul's letters to the churches.

This is only about the Sundays in “Ordinary Time” that is when we are not caught up in the “Big” festival seasons and the readings are chosen to fit in with the Festival. In Ordinary Time we read through an epistle, or most of it, and it's not supposed to fit the Gospel theme, though sometimes it does; but I think it's just chance not on purpose.

However when we read through an epistle it's important to remember it's not a formal statement of church belief as from a council or a “summit”, but simply what the writer thought mattered at the time for the people he was writing to. In the old ritual – when I was young! – the epistle was always read facing East because it was thought to be directed at the Bishop as good advice on how to guide and monitor his church. Epistles are sort of case histories about particular situations in a local church, they are maintenance and repair manuals not construction kits.

Paul gets most attention because he wrote more than anyone else and the NT puts his letters in order of length, and generally he is trying to sort out problems in the church communities he founded. To the Romans is the exception because he had not yet been there and he wanted to show he was “respectable” so that they would welcome him when he arrives and not think he was interfering – which of course he was! Look up Acts 28 v 15. On the whole I think the early Christians seem to have been a right awkward lot – but then what's new?

The other epistles are a mixed bunch. James is full of good sense; when I was a junior curate my churchwarden gave me much good advice, including “if ever you are stuck for a sermon read a chapter of James from the pulpit; if you read a modern translation no-one will recognise it and they'll think you've done well!”

John is gentle and kind. Peter is a baptism sermon with a bit at the end to turn it into a letter to support a persecuted church; the mood changes, even in English, at chapter 4 verse 12. Hebrews is a (long!) sermon about the Eucharist with a top and tail to turn it into a letter.
