

Intercessions for Sunday November 2025

Almighty God, your son Jesus is King of Kings, Lord of Lords and the redeemer of us all, look down upon us as we humbly lay ourselves and our intercessions before you. We are Jesus' people, and we wish to be more closely united with Him in all we do and say. Search the heart of each one of us as we once again consecrate ourselves today to you. Lord Jesus, as we come humbly before your throne today in worship and awe, we give thanks that you are the Lord of our lives and know us better than we know ourselves. We ask that you stir us up afresh to seek your will and play our part no matter what the cost and without asking any reward

Lord in your mercy Hear our prayer

We bring you the needs of the world. We pray that world leaders – and we as individuals – will be stirred up to act responsibly in caring for the beautiful world you have given us for this life. We also pray that while rightly concerned with the needs of this world, we remember to focus on the world to come and live our lives in a way that will be pleasing to you. We pray for areas of the world and, indeed our own nation, affected by natural disasters and for those parts of the world in conflict. We pray for the cessation of war and for all those relief agencies, individuals, and local organisations striving to help.

We pray for all leaders and those in positions of responsibility and government to be wise, honest, and courageous that they may serve the common good, following the example of Jesus, and ensuring fair distribution of resources, especially in times of crisis.

Lord in your mercy Hear our prayer

Father God, we pray for our King, Charles III and the royal family. Bless his reign and the life of our nation. Help us to work together so that truth and justice, harmony and fairness flourish among us all to serve all people following Jesus' example and constantly seeking the common good in all that we all do and say.

Lord in your mercy Hear our prayer

We pray for our own community. For those who are lonely, in poor health physically and emotionally, those who struggle financially, those too proud to ask for help. We pray that they will know the presence of your Son alongside them and the power of Christ the King within them bringing peace and healing for them and help and encouragement for those caring for them in their hour of need. Stir us up to see beyond the image that people present and show us how to reach out or drop seeds of hope. We pray that as servants of the King, we play our part in ensuring that your will may be done, and your kingdom come right here, right now.

Lord in your mercy Hear our prayer

We pray for and name in our hearts those who have recently died and for their resurrection into God's glorious kingdom. We pray for those who grieve that they may know the comfort and peace of your unending love.

Lord in your mercy Hear our prayer

Heavenly Father, Lord of the past and the future: we thank you for all the good things that have happened during the past Church Year. We thank you for all those who work so hard behind the scenes and in front of the scenes to facilitate the fellowship and joy of our worship together as a community. Lord God, we give thanks to you for all that you do in our lives. At the end of this church year, we commend to you all those for whom we have prayed throughout the year and ask that you continue to use us and our prayers to make a difference in their lives.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen
